UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

RIDGE CLEARING & & OUTSOURCING

Plaintiff,

- against -

ADNAN KHASHOGGI,

Defendant.

07 Civ. 6611 (RJH) (HP)

ECF CASE

DECLARATION OF ALEXANDER B.
BLUMROSEN REGARDING SERVICE OF SUMMONS AND COMPLAINT

ALEXANDER B. BLUMROSEN states under penalties of perjury as follows:

1. I am an American attorney, admitted to the bars of New York and Paris, France. I am a partner in the French law firm of Bernard – Hertz – Béjot, and have practiced law in France since 1989.
2. I submit this Declaration regarding service of the Summons and Complaint in the above-captioned matter.
3. I have acted as counsel for Plaintiff in this matter in France, and have been asked to provide this Declaration to confirm whether proper service has been made on M. Adnan Khashoggi at his address in France in this matter.
4. Service in France is properly effected under the Hague Convention of November 15, 1965 on the Service Abroad of Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents in Civil or Commercial Matters, which entered into force in the United States on February 10, 1969, and in France on September 1, 1972 (hereafter the “Hague Service Convention”).
5. Article 10 of the Hague Service Convention provides, in part, that, “[p]rovided the State of destination does not object, the present Convention shall not interfere with . . . (c) the freedom of any person interested in a judicial proceeding to effect service of judicial documents directly through the judicial officers, officials or other competent persons of the State of destination.

6. France has not objected to service under article 10(c) of the Hague Service Convention, and accordingly service is properly made in France under the French rules for serving a complaint in a civil matter.
7. Service of process in France is properly made by process-server, an officer of the court who must effect service as provided in the New Code of Civil Procedure and establish an affidavit of service that states when and how service was effected.
8. In this matter, I provided the Summons, Complaint and all exhibits thereto to Mr. Gérard TREIBER, a process-server in Cannes, which is Mr. Khashoggi's place of residence, for service. We retained this particular bailiff because he had already served a complaint in another American legal proceeding on Mr. Khashoggi at his Cannes residence.
9. The process-server served the Summons, Complaint and exhibits thereto on Mr. Khashoggi on September 5, 2007. His Affidavit of Service is attached hereto as Exhibit A, and an English translation is attached as Exhibit B.
10. Article 655 of the New Code of Civil Procedure provides for substitute service of a complaint at a defendant's residence, as follows:

“Where the signification in person shall prove to be impossible, the process paper may be delivered either at the place of domicile or, in default of a known place of domicile, at the place of residence.

The process-server must describe in the process paper the steps he took to proceed with personal service, as well as the circumstances making such service impossible.

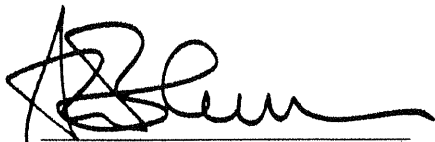

The copy may be delivered to any person present at the place of domicile or at the place of residence of the addressee.

The copy may be left only on condition that the person present accepts, and states his/her surname, first names, and capacity.

The process-server must leave, in all cases, at the place of domicile or residence of the addressee, a dated notice of his visit advising of the delivery of the copy and indicate the nature of the process and the surname of the petitioner as well as providing such information relating to the person to whom the copy has been delivered.”
11. Upon review of the Affidavit of Service, I confirm that service was properly made under French law and conforms to articles 653 and following of the New Code of Civil Procedure.

12. The foregoing is my true and correct understanding of the facts and matters of French law pertaining thereto.

Signed in Paris, France

La présente signification vous est faite à toutes fins afin que vous ne puissiez l'ignorer.

L'acte a été signifié par clerc assermenté.

L'adresse du requis m'est connue comme lui ayant déjà signifié de nombreux actes.

J'ai préalablement vérifié l'adresse du domicile de Monsieur Khashoggi, en consultant notamment les Pages Blanches. Son nom y figurait bien.

Je me suis transporté le jour, mois et année ci-dessus indiqué à 06400 CANNES, 104 Boulevard de la Croisette, Le Marly D, à l'adresse indiquée de Monsieur Adnan KHASHOGGI.

Là étant, j'ai rencontré le gardien de la résidence qui m'a confirmé le domicile du requis qui s'était absenté pour une durée de quarante huit heures.

Il m'a précisé que le requis était occupant des 6ème et 7ème étages de la Résidence et qu'il était possible de rencontrer sur place son "majordome".

Répondant à mes appels, une personne de sexe masculin m'a ouvert la porte, refusant de décliner ses nom et qualité et de recevoir la copie de l'acte dont j'étais porteur.

Je lui ai remis un avis de passage afin qu'il le remettre au requis, daté, avertissant le requis de la remise de la copie, et mentionnant la nature de l'acte, le nom du requérant ainsi que l'indication que la copie de l'acte doit être retirée dans le plus bref délai en mon étude, contre récépissé ou émargement, par l'intéressé ou par toute personne spécialement mandatée, et ce conformément à l'article 656 du NCPC.

De retour en mon étude j'ai, le premier jour ouvrable suivant, adressé la lettre simple au requis prévue à l'article 658 du NCPC, comportant les mêmes mentions que l'avis de passage et rappelant que, la copie de l'acte ayant été déposée en mon étude, l'huissier de justice peut, à la demande du destinataire, transmettre la copie de l'acte à une autre étude où celui-ci pourra le retirer dans les mêmes conditions.

La lettre contient en outre une copie de l'acte de signification.

Acting as American counsel for the company Ridge Clearing & Outsourcing Solutions, Inc.

Electing domicile in our office, as well as the translation of said documents in the French language.

Informing you that this notification contains 233 pages including this one.

This notification is served on you for any and all purposes so that you must necessarily be aware of it.

The service has been effected by a duly authorized process-server.

The address of the defendant is known to me because I have already served process on him a number of times.

I have first verified the address of Mr. Khashoggi's domicile, in particular by searching the white pages. His name is indeed referenced there.

I went to the address referenced for Mr. Adnan Khashoggi, Le Marly D, 104 Boulevard de la Croisette, 06400 Cannes, on the day, month and year here above indicated.

When I was there, I met the caretaker of the residential apartment building who confirmed that this was the domicile of the defendant, who had left for a period of forty-eight hours.

He added that the defendant occupied the 6th and 7th floor of the residential apartment building and that it was possible to meet his "majordome" there.

Answering my calls, a man opened the door, refusing to give his name and capacity or to receive the copy of the notification that I was holding.

I gave him an "attempted delivery" notice to be remitted to the defendant, dated, informing the defendant of the delivery of the copy, and identifying the nature of the process, the name of the claimant and explaining that the copy of the process must be collected within the shortest time period at my office, against acknowledgment of receipt or signature, by the interested party or by any person specially empowered to that effect, in compliance with section 656 of the New Code of Civil Procedure (NCCP).

When I came back to my office, I sent to the defendant on the following working day the simple letter set forth under section 658 of the NCCP, containing the same information as the attempted delivery notice and indicating that the copy of the process having been filed at my office, the process server can, upon request of the addressee, forward the copy of the process to the office of another process-server where the addressee can collect the process under the same conditions.

The letter also contains a copy of the notification of service.
